

A grayscale relief map of the world, showing the topography of the continents and the bathymetry of the oceans. The map uses shading to represent elevation and depth, with higher elevations in darker shades and lower elevations in lighter shades. The continents are clearly visible, with their mountain ranges and valleys highlighted. The oceans are shown with varying depths, indicated by different shades of gray.

С.Н. Абдульмянов

Задания лабораторных работ учебного курса
«Физическая география материков и океанов»
с использованием ГИС

Москва
МБА
2019